

CASTING

For the beautiful feature film “Paris, Paris” directed by Isabelle Tollenaere and produced by Menuetto film, we are looking for several people for important roles.

The film tells the story of several migrants from all continents of the world learning French in Paris.

We would like to work with anyone who has migrated from their country home. We are looking for people from Africa, Middle East and Asia.

It is not imperative to speak French well, but English, even at a low level, is mandatory. There's no need to be an actor-ress. Filming will take place in July 2022, in Brussels and Paris.

You can send your application with a photo, a phone number and the city where you currently live to the following email : paris@mcasting.be

Don't hesitate to spread the word.

Only and only if your profile matches the director's research, we will contact you for a later casting step.

Thank you and see you soon.
